

I, Mrs. Manju Gupta W/o Captain Som Nath Gupta Resident of [redacted], [redacted], New Delhi-110015 (INDIA) do solemnly state as under:-

When Sant Thakar Singh stayed at the Delhi Ashram I often accompanied my husband to the Ashram. Sometimes I was allowed to prepare the meal for the Master. But most of the time I had to care for so many things in the Ashram and in our private home that I could not cook so frequently for him.

When I learned that my husband had not been treated well by the other members of the Ashram Committee and had been released from the Management, I was very disappointed.

I made some statements on T.V. recording interview to a Western Journalist Mr. Knauer, who visited our home because I wanted to help my husband. The statement made by me to Mr. Knauer may please be treated as withdrawn and same is very much regretted because it was not true and was made in haste on the request of Mr. Knauer only.

I wish to state that I have never seen Sant Thakar Singh beat woman or anyone else. The story that the children in the hostel-school had not sufficient to eat is wrong. We ourselves cared a lot for the children and other guests of the Ashram and all had been hosted very well. This is evident by the fact that more and more visitors and children were coming.

I want to state that there was some misunderstanding between Sant Thakar Singh and my husband and now the matter has been amicably resolved and my husband has readopted Sant Thakar Singh as his true master and being devoted Indian wife I have to follow the foot steps of my husband, the Sant Thakar Singh has pardoned my misdeeds and I have again joined spiritual activities under the guidance of Sant Thakar Singh as my true master and all statements made by me against him to be treated as withdrawn. Inconvenience caused to all those from my statement is very much regretted May God, the master power bless us all.
